Synopsis book

Paranormal/Supernatural The Rileys are the perfect example of the American family: a loving husband and wife and two small children. They head off to the beach for a vacation without a care in the world and the determination to make their time a special event. But for this family, everything is about to change when they visit a beach famous for ghostly activity. Joans interest in the paranormal has been aroused by a book she is reading and as time progresses, she and her husband not only see the ghost of the woman who died over a 150 years ago, but seem to be seeing spirits everywhere. Are they in a ethereal hot spot, or is something else going on? What do these spirits want? The longer Riley family stays, the deeper they are drawn into spirit world. As their health begins to fail, they make plans to leave, but something has them in their grasp; Time and events appear to be standing still. Can the Rileys break free of the beaches hold? Endless Summer is a ghost story with a
