Synopsis book

The Lebensborn Alliance begins 11 years after The Lebensborn Experiment ends in the four-book series. It is now 1956 and the dawn of the Civil Rights Movement. Former Sergeant Kapp Johnson gets enlisted as Dr. Martin Luther Kings bodyguard and moves to Montgomery, Alabama. Hans has inherited millions from his uncle and buys the Vancouver Daily Times. As Managing Editor, Hans sends Adok to Montgomery to report on the bus boycott. When Adok gets involved with the local KKK and goes missing, Hans prophecy he would one day meet Sergeant Johnson again comes true. Hans travels to Alabama where he solicits Kapps help to find Adok. Kapp recruits two of his WWII buddies to join the search. Now a team, Hans and Kapps quest to rescue Adok reveals a more sinister plot that may plunge the world into another global war and eventually lead the alliance back to Germany. In this exciting second installment of the Lebensborn series, the number of people transfused with the serum grows, and so does
