Synopsis book

The Nameless Dwarf Omnibus contains the first three books of the highly acclaimed Chronicles of the Nameless Dwarf: The Ant-Man of Malfen, The Axe of the Dwarf Lords, The Scout and the Serpent. Following the massacre of the dwarves in their ravine city, the Nameless Dwarf pursues the survivors to the brigand town of Malfen, where he learns they have crossed the mountains into the lands of nightmare. His only intention is to save his people from extinction, but he's the last person they'd want to find them. The Ant-Man of Malfen's story drew me in quickly, captivated me with its characters and kept me reading feverishly until the very end. -- Media Man fantasy adventure at its most pure. In a short novella Prior packs in a massive amount of world-building and history. -- T. Edmund Jenkin

If you like Moorcock, Melville or Hobb, read this. -- Kristan Dawkins

All of the characters were skillfully drawn by the author so that they came off the page fully developed and ready for action. --
