Synopsis book

Fifteen year old schoolboy, Jake West, and his best friend, Ben Brooker, have found an old chest in an attic. Hidden inside is an intricately carved wooden box which houses a set of five mysterious stones. When Jake passes his right hand over the crest on the top of the box, it opens. The stones suddenly erupt. A bright beam of light shoots up to the sky and life will never be the same again. The light is a portal to dangerous and mysterious worlds. But, in activating it when it was thought lost forever, Jake has unwittingly revealed the continued existence and precise whereabouts of this secret weapon... As well as that of it's new guardian. Jake West is a Keeper, as were his ancestors before him. Responsible for the stones ultimate protection and bestowed with the powers he needs to fulfil his destiny, he will be hunted across worlds. In desperate times against a seemingly invincible foe, he will have to become more than he ever thought possible, for the future of our world and

Hidden inside is an intricately carved wooden box which houses a set of five mysterious stones. When Jake passes his right hand over the crest on the top of the box, it opens. The stones suddenly erupt. A bright beam of light shoots up to the sky and life will never be the same again. The light is a portal to dangerous and mysterious worlds. But, in activating it when it was thought lost forever, Jake has unwittingly revealed the continued existence and precise whereabouts of this secret weapon... As well as that of it's new guardian. Jake West is a 'Keeper', as were his ancestors before him. Responsible for the stones' ultimate protection and bestowed with the powers he needs to fulfil his destiny, he will be hunted across worlds. In desperate times against a seemingly invincible foe, he will have to become more than he ever thought possible, for the future of our world and
