Synopsis book

IT READS LIKE A HEADLINE! Unsuspecting Jewish Doctor From 2019 Involuntarily Launched Into Nazi Germany Benjamin Bauman has a problem--a BIG problem! While driving to his Tampa, Florida home to celebrate a great day with his family he is overcome by a blinding light and is rendered unconscious. When he awakens he finds himself in a hospital. The year is 1937. The place--Berlin, the thriving capital of antisemitism in the heart of Nazi Germany. While counting the seconds until he will be tortured or killed, Ben finds survival relief in discovering that he is referred to as a man named Karl Schroeder, Generalarzt in command of that very hospital. Another surprise without prior instruction, he speaks fluent German! With a touch of irony, his new German companions are just as shocked to learn that Karl awoke speaking fluent English. Word of this miracle soon spreads to the higher echelons of the German Reich as Ben can't shake the feeling he was sent on an unrevealed mission. Hear Bens
