

The background of the entire image is a photograph of a field of tall, dry, golden-brown grass. Three swords are planted upright in the grass. The sword on the left is a katana with a dark blade and a black scabbard with silver-colored metal rings. The middle sword has a wooden scabbard and a dark blade. The sword on the right is a katana with a dark blade and a black scabbard with gold-colored metal rings. In the background, a dark, stormy sky with heavy, grey clouds is visible, with a hint of a rainbow or light breaking through on the left side.

Synopsis book

Elon of Aerilann, Elven advisor to the High King of Men, helped negotiate the treaty between Elves, Dwarves and men. He suddenly finds that fragile truce threatened from without by an unknown enemy and from within by old hatreds and prejudice. With the aid of his true-friend Colath, the wizard Jareth and the elven archer Jalila, he goes in search of the source of the threat. Ailith, the Heir to Riverford - fights her own silent battle. Her father has changed, something's wrong. But her quest to discover what has changed puts her life and very soul in danger and leaves her only one direction in which to turn. Elon. To preserve the alliance, though, Elon may have to choose between his honor, his duty and the soul-bond he has awaited for centuries.
